

Decision Making

Self Assessment

Checklist for student self-assessment for Decision Making (Grades K-2)

Decision making is the process of developing and using criteria to select from choices that seem to be equal.

A. I identify a decision to be made.

Rubric not appropriate.

B. I identify alternatives to be considered.

____ Yes. I identify alternatives to be considered.

____ No. I do very little to identify alternatives to be considered.

C. I identify the characteristics to be considered.

____ Yes. I identify the characteristics to be considered.

____ No. I do very little to identify the characteristics to be considered.

D. I describe the importance of each characteristic.

____ Yes. I describe the importance of each characteristic.

____ No. I do very little to describe the importance of each characteristic.

E. I show if the alternative possesses the characteristics.

____ Yes. I show if the alternative possesses the characteristics.

____ No. I do very little to show if the alternative possesses the characteristics.

F. When appropriate, I change characteristics.

____ Yes. When appropriate, I change characteristics.

____ No. When appropriate, I do very little to change characteristics.

Adapted from McREL Institute